Howard Wakefield, scrappy-manager of the Rockford club and one of the best first sackers in the circuit, took the 1916 Three-Eye league slugging honors, according to the averages prepared by J. Phil Appel of Quincy, the official statistician. Howard went through the season with an average of .852 in 134 games. "Yank" Davis of Moline, who led the greater part of the season, slumped toward the end and finished second with .346. Bert Graham of Davenport was third with .340 and "Ziggy" Sherer, 1915 champion, ended up in fourth place with 333. Rock Island was last in team batting with .253 and Rockford led with .282. Altogether 23 players in the league finished with an average of 300 or better, indicating poor pitching. Beck of Peoria and Williams of Rockford were tied for home run honors with 10 even and Davis led in total bases with 246 Sherer led in triples with 19 and Bossoloni in doubles with 47. Golvin was the champion base stealer with 55 Manager Hughes of Moline was the champion sacrificer with 39. The averages show Louis Kolls of Rock Island in second place with an average of 385, but he took part in only 11 games Aaron Ward of Rock Island finished 15th with .314, but he took part in only 33 games. 385 Veteran Harness Pllot Injured fo Second Time This Season-Removed to Hospital.

340 Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 21.-Firs choices swept a card of three event at yesterday afternoon's grand circui 223 races. Peter Stevens was successfu 321 in a trial to beat 2:02% and "Pop Geers, veteran driver, was injured when Sir Anthony Carter, his Hote Hartman stake candidate, went into pile caused when Rythmaid fell. Geer is now in a hospital and may be kep there several days, as he is badl bruised.

Peter Look was the only favorite vin in straight heats. He was easil the best of five 3-year-olds starting i the Horse Review's futurity pace. Ros Magee, second choice, made a break i the second heat and was unable t avoid being distanced.

Ben Earl, from Omaha, won th Hotel Hartman pacing stake, the sec and heat being taken away from him by Young Todd, from which Walter Cox got a mile in 2:0214, the fastest ever done by a 4-year-old pacer. In the next heat Young Todd was not so good and was beaten for the place by Sir Anthony Carter, that Dick McMahon drove after the disabling of Geers in the first heat.

It was on the far turn that Rythmaid fell. Sir Anthony Carter was top close to avoid a collision. Driver Geers was pitched high into the air, and in falling alighted on his right shoulder. Problem, still farther back, was driven wide just in time to keep T. W. Murphy, from being thrown. Rythmaid's driver was not hurt.

Esperanza did not do so well in the first two heats of the 2:07 trot, they being split between Mirthful and Sister Strong. The California mare took the race by winning the next three heats, Sister Strong being a good contender in each.

Peter Stevens, in his attack against 2:02%, did the first quarter in 0:29% 66 and reached the half in a minute flat. 65 The third quarter was the fastest of all, being in 0:2914. He tired coming

REB RUSSELL IS BATTED HARD

Ambitious Giants Trample Cubs Ender Foot in Opener, Setting Record of 15 Straight Victories.

Chicago, Sept. 21.-After a nightmare of the national pastime the White Sox woke up in second place in the pennant race as Jackson pulled down a long fly for the final out yesterday at Comiskey park. The Athletics were the victims, as per schedule, the Mackmen leaning on the small end of an 8 to 7 score. As the Red Sox kept up their dirty work at Detroit, the locals are still, yet, and altogether, one and one-half games behind a margin which is getting somewhat threadbare. The Tigers moved into the apartment vacated by the

There was some mystery about the seven runs accumulated by the cellar occupants, as Reb Russell was given the job of pitching for the Sox. Apparently most of Connie's building recruits had never heard of Russell and his mighty port-side delivery, for the peaceful denizens of Brother Penn's town lambasted the curves of Tex just as if he had been of common clay. Eleven lusty swats were garnered off the Texan in seven innings, after which it was found the better part of strategy to permit Dave Dan-
